

My Castle Shape Poem

Adults: You can scribe the ideas that the children have if needs be.

Think about the words they could use to describe it or what it might have inside it. Link it to any castles they have visited and any they have seen in their favourite stories or films.